GUILD TO OPEN NOVEMBER FIRST

Directors Secure Competent Staff to Supervise Work of the Community Recreation Center—Graduate of Boston School to Be Assisted by Local Workers

Miss Marjorie Fairbanks Holt, a graduate of the Boston School of Physical Education in 1922, has been chosen superintendent of the Andover Guild for the coming season. She has been instructor in physical education at Southfield Point Hall, Stamford, Connecticut, and at Bethany College, Topeka, Kansas. During the past summer she acted as swimming and tennis counselor at Camp Newfound, Harrison, Maine, and comes to her new work in Andover highly recommended.

Miss Holt will be assisted by Milton G. Kroth of Ballardvale, a student at Boston University. He has had charge of the organization of boys' work in the oil fields of Kansas. Miss Ruth E. Mann, a teacher in the public schools will also help with the girls' work.

A competent organization has been secured and the prospect for a year's work which will open November 1, is excellent.

LOCAL RED CROSS ELECTS

Representatives of Public Health and Relief Organizations to Meet to Effect Closer Cooperation

The annual meeting of the directors of the Andover Branch of the American Red Cross was held at the home of Dr. C. M. Fuess, last Sunday afternoon, with twelve directors present.

Mrs. H. Gilbert Francke, Mrs. Edwin T. Brewster, Miss Anna Kuhn, Henry A. Bodwell, Dr. Charles E. Abbott, and Frederick H. Jones, were reelected directors for three years and the following officers were again chosen: Chairman, Dr. Fuess; vice chairman, Mrs. George L. Selden; secretary, Thaxter Eaton; treasurer, C. Carleton Kimball.

Augustus P. Thompson will continue as chairman of the Roll Call committee and Mrs. Charles D. Thompson will have charge of the sale of Christmas seals, the proceeds of which are used to send a number of children to the Middleton Health Camp. Dr. Fuess was elected chairman of the committee to arrange a meeting of representatives of the public health and relief organizations of the town with a view to effecting closer cooperation among them.

Mrs. George F. French reported that she and the district nurse were on duty one day at the Topfield Fair, and treated thirty-four cases. Considerable other business was transacted.

Memorial Hall Accepts Painting by Homer

Raymond S. Bartlett has generously offered to lend to the Trustees of the Memorial Hall Library for a period of ninety-nine years a large copy in oils of one of Winslow Homer's paintings of the sea.

At the monthly meeting of the Trustees held on Tuesday last, it was resolved, That the Trustees gratefully accept this loan and agree to hand this painting, if possible, in the remodeled Memorial Hall, promising also to return it to Mr. Bartlett or his heirs if at any time they request it.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be entered in the Records and that a copy be sent to Mr. Bartlett as evidence of the gratitude of the Trustees.

PUNCHARD 0; BELMONT 22

High School Team Plays Hard-Fought Game Before a Large Crowd on Balmoral Field

Punchard High lost to Belmont at Balmoral Field on the holiday afternoon, 22 to 0, before a crowd of about 2500, the largest number that a Punchard team ever played before. The defeat was the worst experienced by a Lovely-coached team since Exeter high won by a 40 to 0 score.

The Belmont team was the heaviest the locals ever faced but in spite of this they had to fight for every point. Capt. Flanders and Coe raised havoc with Punchard line, particularly in the first half. The former going 180 yards by rushing during the afternoon and the latter scored all three touchdowns for his team. The Belmont captain also kicked a pretty field goal in the last quarter, from the 16-yard line.

Punchard was on the defense most of the game, but had its opponents on the run in the third period when they advanced the ball twice to the 17-yard line, only to lose it when a score seemed possible. They were handicapped at center as Mayhew Stickney and Joseph Doherty are both on the injured list and Coach Lovely was forced to use Lawrence in the snapper-back position. The lad's inexperience was costly at times and poor passes and fumbling cost the team many yards.

The summary:

BELMONT	PUNCHARD
Klaner, l.e.	r.e., M. Murphy, Gallant
Sherry, Libby, l.t.	r.t., Emmons
Egan, Hines, l.g.	r.g., Bassett

Score: Belmont 22, Punchard 0. Touchdowns: Coe 3. Goal from touchdown: Flanders. Goal from field: Flanders. Referee: Frank Herlihy. Umpire: Walter Sidley. Linesman: John Murphy. Time: Four 10-minute periods.

Punch Harder Out

The first issue of the Punch Harder, the Andover High School paper, came out Monday. The paper contains many interesting features including news, sports, fiction, poetry, jokes, and alumni notes.

The members of the staff are: Editor-in-chief, William V. Emmons, '27; literary editors, Margaret Scott, '27, and Dorothy Ruhl, '29; athletic editors, Joseph Doherty, '27, and Annetta Anderson, '27; exchanges, Daisy Stevens, '27, and Eleanor Ramsdell, '29; business managers, Irving V. Whitcomb, '27, and Paul Simeone, '28; jokes, Luther Gulick, '27, and Marjorie West, '27; school notes, Evelyn Miller, '27.

The purpose of the Boy Scout Organization is to train boys to be honest, helpful, careful, capable citizens. They are taught to be obedient to authority, honest in their dealings, helpful to others, clean in their living, prompt and industrious.

They believe in their organization and are now making an effort to enlarge the scope of the work and make the Boy Scout training, experience and privilege available for more boys in this community, and in this effort ask the earnest interest and financial assistance of everyone in Andover. There is no Y. M. C. A. in Andover where boys can get together in the activities which hold a boy's interest, but self-sacrificing, capable men are ready to give the boys of Andover this Boy Scout training. The people of Andover must generously support all good civic movements and the Scouts pledge the grateful response of the boys of the town if aid is given for this work.

C. W. Holland, at the Andover National Bank will receive subscriptions.

Troop 3 of the Andover Boy Scouts from the South church enjoyed Boy Scout Rally day Saturday at the home of Scout John W. Wright on Holt road. The troop arrived at the Wright home about 1:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon and a field day commenced activities. The boys had a good time playing games, football, and enjoyed races. They played scout games under the direction of Scout Master J. Roderick Cannon and Dr. Nathaniel Stowers, deputy commissioner of Boy Scouts of Andover. The guest of honor was John Cummings, one of Andover's prominent Civil war veterans, who was present in uniform.

After a strenuous afternoon of athletics the boys sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and saluted the flag before it was lowered at sunset by Comrade Cummings. Bruce Valentine, a member of the troop, was on hand with his bugle. At 5:30 the boys went inside where the dining room was prettily decorated in pink and white. Frankfurts, cold ham, tongue and potato salad were served and a large cake adorned the center of the table. "Troop 3" was inscribed in colors on the cake which contained a favor for each scout.

The supper was served by the hostess, Mrs. Henry S. Wright, assisted by Mrs. John Cummings, Mrs. James Feeney and Mrs. James Bell of Lawrence. Thomas Kerin of Lawrence was in charge of the ice cream. James Bell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. James Bell of Lawrence, was the mascot of the troop during the afternoon. After supper the boys sang patriotic songs and then adjourned to the spacious lawn, where they gave three cheers for the hostess. They left for home about nine o'clock, after spending a most enjoyable afternoon and evening.

Those present were: Scouts, John W. Wright, Robert Abercrombie, Hartwell Abbott, Thomas Hunt, Gilbert Cromie, George Waldie, William Foster, Roger Huntress, Bruce Valentine and Fred Ladd, Jr., and the deputy commissioner, Dr. Nathaniel Stowers; Scoutmaster J. Roderick Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings, Thomas Kerin, James Bell, Jr., Mrs. James Feeney and Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Wright.

Eddie Cantor in "Kid Boots"

When Paramount cast about in search of a new comedy and a new comedian, "Kid Boots" was on the glib tongue of the theatrical world.

"Kid Boots" took blaze Broadway by storm and fun-thrifty New York supported Florenz Ziegfeld's production for three years. Now, Paramount's film version, advertised for showing at the Colonial theatre on October 18 and 19, is heralded as the mirth-provoker of the season.

Eddie Cantor, ace of musical comedians, the "Kid" of "Kid Boots," enacts his original colorful role. A supporting cast of remarkable talent arrays itself with the scintillating star. Opposite Cantor is Clara Bow, alluring portrayer of flapper characterizations, whose recent triumph in "Mantrap" was the talk of filmdom.

Lawrence Gray, handsome leading man in Paramount pictures with Gloria Swanson and Bebe Daniels, plays the youthful heir who succumbs to Billie Dove but is already entangled with alluring Natalie Kingston.

New York's picturesque east side, where second-hand stores reign supreme and keen competition develops strange methods, offers wide scope for the opening scenes. Cantor, as the "come-on," finds himself up to his neck in difficulties. Through a rapid sequence of riotously funny situations, Eddie is thrust into an exclusive golf club as a caddy—and he has never even seen a golf ball.

His predicament becomes more involved with the entrance of Clara and her villainous would-be lover. Further color is lent by the conflicting loves of the Lawrence Gray—Billie Dove—Natalie Kingston triangle. Frank Tuttle directed.

METROPOLITAN THEATRE

"Kid Boots," meaning Cantor—though long a popular star on Broadway, made his debut in motion pictures only a few months ago when Paramount secured him to play the lead in a film version of his stage success.

"Kid Boots" shows the versatile Eddie as a small time clothing store salesman who is thrust into a high powered romance with beautiful effervescent Clara Bow. In turn

Eddie also serves as a caddy, a life saver and a chauffeur. He is surrounded by a cast of notable players, including Billie Dove, Lawrence

Grey, Natalie Kingston, Malcolm

Waite and many others.

On the stage an attraction of unusual interest will be the famous Welch choir composed of more than a score of Welch miners whose remarkable voices have placed the troupe among the foremost vocal bodies of the world.

Irmanette, a girl violinist of remarkable technique and expression, who also sings and dances, will be another feature of the stage program.

Del Castillo's novelty organ solo will be

"Fan Mail" while the overture played by the Grand Orchestra under the direction of Joseph

Klein, will be "Lehar Melodies" including

"The Merry Widow" "Gold and Silver"

"Eva" and many other selections. A news weekly, and a screen specialty, "So this is Europe," round out the bill.

The Phillips Academy football eleven won their first victory of the season Saturday, when they topped the strong Harvard Freshman aggregation by a 6 to 0 margin.

The Blue eleven completely outclassed their opponents and should have had another touchdown, but for questionable judgment on the part of a substitute quarterback. Harvard threatened to score but once during the game, and this was the only occasion when they got inside Andover's 25-yard line. The chance to score, however, gave the Blue eleven a chance to demonstrate their gameness, and four attempts availed the Crimson nothing. The lineup:

Christ Church Notes

Bishop Slattery is expected for Confirmation on Sunday, November 28, at the four o'clock service. Classes in preparation are being held in the rectory's study on Tuesdays at 4.30 and 7.15 p.m.

It is planned to have the official "opening" of the Parish House on Monday, November 1. Some unique features have been proposed for this interesting event. The plans for the sale on November 17, are materializing also. When finished, the Parish House will be a most attractive as well as serviceable adjunct in church work.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

Looking Back Twenty-five Years

Samuel L. Fuller has purchased the property owned by Mrs. William P. Foster on Central street.

Lieut. Marlborough Churchill has been stationed at Fort McHenry, Maryland, and he left for his post on Monday noon.

W. H. Higgins' brake and barge were in service Tuesday conveying guests and the Salem Cadet band to the Russell-Sutton nuptials at North Andover.

George D. Lawson of Maple avenue has gone to Buffalo for ten days to visit his son, Ralph, and brother. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. John P. Clark of North Andover.

A cake walk and ball will be held by George Jett in Pilgrim hall on November 7th.

Frank Fulton, a carpenter employed by J. E. Pitman, laid 6000 shingles in eight hours and thirty-seven minutes, putting in two nails to a shingle, on the new barn being built for William H. Welch on Summer street, one day this week.

The engagement of Miss Effie Mae Stevens of Lynn and Fred G. Moore of Andover is announced.

The trustees of Phillips academy have chosen Professor Graves for the position of acting principal to serve the remainder of the school year.

The inauguration into their respective professorships of Rev. Charles O. Day, D.D., and Rev. J. Winthrop Platner, D.D., will occur at the Seminary church tonight.

A special service was held at the Free church Sunday evening. Rev. F. A. Wilson read the story of "Fishin' Jimmy" and it was illustrated by familiar hymns. A quartet consisting of Mrs. J. Newton Cole, Mrs. E. C. Pike, William Scott and William Courts sang "As Pants the Hart" and Miss Alice Courts sang a solo. An orchestra of nine pieces played.

P. W. Thomson is among those who have been chosen to represent Harvard at the Yale centennial.

The new quarters of the kindergarten of the John Dove school in the Towle house on Bartlett street were brilliantly lighted Wednesday evening when the Mother's club gave a gentleman's night. As the guests arrived, they were received by the teachers of the kindergarten, Miss Reed, who is also president of the club, and Miss Scott, and by the committee having the reception in charge, consisting of Mrs. Patrick Welch, Mrs. Newton Jaquith, Jr., Mrs. J. A. Burt, Mrs. Austin S. Poland, Mrs. John Adams, Mrs.

James J. Feeney and Mrs. Charles E. Karcher. At eight o'clock Miss Reed introduced Miss Alice French (Octave Thane) who had kindly consented to say a few words to the mothers and fathers. A piano solo was delightfully rendered by Miss Mabel Bacon of the Abbot academy faculty, and then a social hour followed during which chocolate and cake were served by the committee. In all there were about a hundred people present at the reception. This is the club's second year and the officers consist of Miss Reed, as president, Mrs. J. A. Morrill, secretary, and Mrs. Joshua Paine, as treasurer.

Professor George F. Moore has resigned his chair in the Theological seminary to accept a professorship in Harvard university, newly created for him, in which he will give instruction chiefly in "The History of Religions." The trustees at once voted to accept the resignation with every expression of esteem, and appointed Professor Day, Professor Ropes of Cambridge, and the Rev. Dr. McKenzie as a committee to appoint a successor.

Mr. Durand, the new teacher in English at the academy, got rather badly scraped, bruised and otherwise damaged in attempting to stop a runaway horse belonging to George W. W. Dove.

No golf tournament or tea was held at the Andover golf club house on last Saturday afternoon owing to the death of the late Dr. Bancroft. A match will probably be played tomorrow afternoon between the town members of the club and the academy student members. Tea will be served as on every Saturday afternoon of October.

A current issue of "The Congregationalist" contains pictures of Miss Mary Grafton of this town and Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Carey, who have been recently assigned to missionary work in Turkey. Miss Grafton is a graduate of Pynchard and Oberlin and has had considerable experience as a teacher. Rev. Mr. Carey graduated from the Andover Theological Seminary last June, and he and his wife went at once to the mission field.

A Card—Am ready to show the latest importation in Fall and Winter Millinery, a large assortment of Hats, Toques, Bonnets, Picture Hats, also all the High-Class Novelties from leading houses in Europe; ornaments for hair, automobile veillings, choice pins for hats, etc. Prices from $15 to $50. ### Why Not Standardize Motor Regulations?

A motor trip of over 2000 miles, beginning at Andover, going as far south as Virginia, and up into Canada, forces the conclusion that motor regulations in Massachusetts, and especially in Andover, are quite backward. Perhaps this is due to the traditional desire for local autonomy in Massachusetts, preventing the State from passing desirable laws which should apply uniformly in all towns. As a result, each community acts for itself and the way it handles traffic ranges all the way from the sublime to the ridiculous—depending on the competency of the authorities in each individual locality. By leaving the matter to local government, pandemonium reigns throughout the State. What is the only right thing to do in one place is a matter for arrest in another.

The motorist referred to above drove through eight or nine States, and into Canada. Nowhere along the way was he ever stopped by the police. But when he got back to his own town he was brutally "bawled out" by the local police. Local authority was rampantly asserting itself. His guilt lay in doing nothing but what he had been doing regularly through the Northeastern States and Canada. How is this situation to be explained?

For one thing, most other States are in control of traffic regulations in every town, imposing uniform rules on every community. Evidence of this is seen in the speed signs in such States as Maryland, and in Canada. "Vitesse, 30 miles," say our neighbors to the north. Even within village limits State regulations are in full display. If Massachusetts as a State did this, small towns would not exasperate drivers with absurd and discourteous orders.

We have no doubt that the police officers in Andover do their duty as they see it, but the point is that traffic has increased to such an extent that methods of handling the immense throng of vehicles must necessarily change to keep pace with the new conditions. The day of the "horse and buggy" is gone, and old-fashioned methods of that time should be buried with it. The modern era calls for speeding up travel, and our problem is to move the traffic as quickly as possible, with safety.

The holiday this week saw the heaviest traffic that Andover has ever had pass through its streets. Most of the Andover police officers are to be complimented on the way they handled the stream of cars coming from the Rockingham race track and other northern points. The only way to send the cars through quickly and smoothly was to have a double line going south, and some of the officers, realizing this, encouraged it to the utmost. A reluctance to permit a double line by a few officers was apparent, however; for what reason is unknown. This tended to hold up traffic to such an extent that a string of machines stretched for miles when the line was held up by any one officer.

Residents of Andover are justly proud of their town. We encourage visitors, and wish to share with them our streets, our buildings and scenic beauties. We wish them to be shown every courtesy that is due them, and given any assistance they may desire. The police officers are the only people the tourists come in direct contact with while passing through here, and we are judged accordingly. We believe that discourtesy has almost totally disappeared as regards our police officers, but instances crop up now and then that are unnecessary and unworthy of Andover's traditions. The police officer is a guardian of the law, to see that the law is upheld. The officer's duty in case a law is broken, is to bring the offender to justice where judgment may be passed upon him by the court provided for that purpose; not to take it upon himself to heap abuse upon an unsuspecting driver who happens to displease him in some way.

Andover is not the only town where improvement could be shown in traffic handling, but why should we not set an example at which other communities would be glad to aim. In cases of emergency, as the heavy traffic of Tuesday, why not concede a point, and instead of using old-fashioned, slow methods of handling the traffic, utilize the center of the road, use discretion in the use of traffic beacons and show the tourist that Andover has a traffic squad that can measure up to any in the State under any and all circumstances. This can be done, and in all probability will be done.

Boy Scout Drive

The Boy Scout Drive, which commences next week, will give the people of Andover an opportunity to contribute to a most worthy cause. The quota for the Andover Troop is $1000, and citizens who appreciate the benefits of the Boy Scout training to the future men of the nation will not hesitate to do their share in making the drive a success.

Appointed to Finance Committee

Moderator Alfred E. Stearns announces that H. Bradford Lewis has been appointed to succeed the late George L. Averill as a member of the Finance committee.

The Colonists' Carnival

Pilgrims and Puritans, Indians and Pirates, scarecrows and squashes, haystacks and vegetables will vie with one another for the chief point of interest on November 17, the Colonists' Carnival which will be held in Christ Church parish house in the afternoon and evening. Every hall, nook and corner of the enlarged parish house will have shops or amusements, giving the impression of a "thanksgiving" sale indeed.

The halls will be decorated by Miss Alice Jenkins and Mrs. J. O. Sheppard, the main parish hall being changed into the Old Andover Tea Shop which will be managed by Mrs. J. T. Kimball. The hostesses for the tea are Miss F. Locke, Miss B. Butterfield, the Misses Swift, Miss A. Jenkins, Mrs. W. Higgins, Mrs. H. Noyes, Mrs. A. Bliss, Mrs. H. F. Flint, and Mrs. C. Kimball, while Mrs. Horace Tyler and Mrs. T. D. Thomson will preside at the tea table.

In addition to the tea there will be a Food Shop with its pies, cakes, mince meat, jellies, jams, vegetables, etc., with Mrs. D. Munro chairman; the Candy Shop, Mrs. W. W. Warden chairman; Apron Shop, Mrs. Cook; Memory Shop, Mrs. Boutwell; Flower Shop, Mrs. Henry Tyler; Book Shop, Mrs. Charles Foster and Mrs. W. Bliss; Gift Shop, Mrs. E. Baldwin; Christmas Cards, Miss A. Jenkins; Ice Cream, Mr. and Mrs. G. Brown; Grabs, Miss Ethel Brown; Children's Amusements, Mrs. C. W. Henry, and the Indians and the Boy Rangers.

The Boy Scouts, with W. Keltie and D. Bacon, will endeavor to keep the Indians from scalping the Pilgrims and Puritans, and picturesque pirates will sell their bags of gold. Mrs. A. B. LeBoutillier has charge of the evening's entertainment.

Succotash, the Indian pony, so called because he has always been fed on beans and corn, and Jackie Scarecrow, will be sure to amuse the children.

Natural History Society Holds Annual Jungle Feast

Members of the Andover Natural History society enjoyed their annual jungle feast at Herry pond on Saturday afternoon, leaving the Punchedale school by Wright's auto bus promptly at three o'clock.

On arrival at the pond a busy time ensued gathering firewood and cutting roasting sticks. Much gratuitous advice was offered on the building of camp fires, the roasting of corn etc., but eventually everyone made a hearty meal consisting of bacon, hot dogs, roast corn, and coffee, provided by the committee and supplemented by sweets and fruit according to the taste of the individual.

The remnants of the feast were gathered together and the camp fires extinguished just at dark ready for the homeward trip. Although many maple trees were bare, the foliage was gorgeous especially just at sunset. The party included Mrs. James J. Abbott, Mrs. Anna Paddock, Mrs. Harry A. Ramsdell, Misses Alice Weare, Abbie Abbott, Florence Abbott, Bessie P. Goldsmith, Emily Tracy, Eleanor Ramsdell, Emily M. Catherine Stewart, Marion Dimlich, Gwendolin Braddon and Nathan C. Hamilton, Edwin T. Brewster, Omar P. Chase and Jonathan Holt.

One hundred sixty members of the Appalachian Mountain club visited Andover on the holiday and walked across country over Prospect and Boston hills. Part of the party arrived in town by automobile, and part by train and trolley.

A noon-day meal and evening lunch were eaten at the camp at Noke farm, where camp fires permitted the broiling of chops, hot dogs, and bacon, and the serving of hot coffee and tea. Perfect weather conditions favored the outing from start to finish.

Miss Helen Church, formerly of Andover, was the leader of the party, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward were host and hostess. Other ladies present were Mrs. W. Gordon and Mrs. C. Carleton Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Philip French, Mrs. Maude Farlow, Miss Bernice Stimpson and Miss Bessie P. Goldsmith.

Weddings

BYRNE—DONEYAN

At 4.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at a pretty ceremony, in St. Mary's church, Lawrence, Miss Mary Veronica Doneyan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Doneyan, 510 Hampshire street, became the bride of Michael Byrne, son of Frank Byrne of 83 Central street, Andover. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James M. Kelly, O. S. A., and the single ring service was used. Prof. Thomas F. Leonard, the church organist, played the nuptial music.

The bride wore a gown of canary yellow georgette with a picture hat to match, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss Josephine Doneyan, who wore a frock of flesh-colored georgette with a picture hat in harmony. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums. John Byrne acted as best man for his brother.

A reception for about thirty-five guests was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony, and a wedding dinner was served. After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Lawrence.

HARTIGAN—MAHONEY

Miss Genevieve E. Mahoney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Mahoney of 180 Hampshire street, Lawrence, became the bride of Daniel A. Hartigan of 5 Hartigan court, at a nuptial mass at ten o'clock Monday morning in St. Mary's church, Lawrence. Rev. Fr. Michael A. Sullivan, the pastor, celebrated the mass and performed the ceremony. Rev. Fr. Frederick S. Riordan, pastor of St. Augustine's church, was inside the altar rail, and the acolytes were John and William Donovan, nephews of the bride. Prof. Thomas F. Leonard played the nuptial music.

The bride, who entered the church on her father's arm, wore a georgette gown in rose and chanel red, embroidered in gold, and a hat in harmony. She carried an arm bouquet of Columbia roses and valley lilies. She was attended by her sister, Miss Eleanor H. Mahoney, as maid of honor who wore a gown of jungle green georgette, embroidered in gold, and a hat to match. Her flowers were deep pink roses. Dr. John J. Hartigan acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Vincent A. Mahoney and Frank L. Carey.

A reception for the immediate relatives and close friends of the couple was held at the Mahoney residence following the ceremony, and a wedding breakfast was served.

Following their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hartigan will make their home at Carrol Court. Mr. Hartigan is a well-known Andover pharmacist.

WINTERS—SHWETZ

A pretty fall wedding took place in St. Augustine's church Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, when Miss Mary Frances Shwetz of 77 Boxford street, Lawrence, was united in marriage to Robert A. Winters, son of Frank Winters of Cuba street, by Rev. Frederick S. Riordan, O. S. A. The bridesmaid was Miss Betty Winters and the best man was John Mahoney. The bride wore shell pink satin with silver duchesse lace, and a hat in harmony. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore orchid with Spanish lace, and a tan velvet hat. She carried a bouquet of Columbia roses.

The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a pearl rosary and the groom's gift to the best man was a pair of cuff links.

The annual supper was served in Boston, after which the bride couple left on an extended wedding trip to New York and New Jersey. They will be at home to friends at 27 Chestnut street after November 1. The bride was formerly employed in a beauty shop in the Shepard Stores in Boston. The groom was born in Andover and received his education in the local public schools. He has many local friends and will be remembered by many as the popular premier end man who teamed with John Mahoney in the K. of C. minstrels for several years. He is employed in the Marland Mills.

LEBLANC—CASHAN

A charming fall wedding was solemnized in St. Augustine's church Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Emma Cashan was united in marriage with Elphege Joseph LeBlanc of Lawrence, the wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Frederick S. Riordan, O. S. A., pastor. The bride wore white duchesse satin with a veil of Spanish lace caught with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Rose Cashan, a sister of the bride, wore yellow beaded georgette with a picture hat to match, and carried Ophelia roses. The best man was William Purcell.

The bridal party entered the church while Miss Annie G. Donovan played Lohengrin's procession. Frank Dowd of Lawrence, a friend of the bride, sang "O Promise Me." Miss Annie G. Donovan played Mendelssohn's recessional. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a white gold finger ring. The groom's gift to the best man was a pair of K. of C. cuff links.

A wedding supper served at the home of the bride by Caterer A. P. Weigel of Lawrence was attended by relatives and intimate friends from Andover, North Andover, Lawrence, Haverhill and Laconia, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc left on an extended wedding trip to Key West, Florida, and will be at home to friends about December 1 at 65 Chester street, Lawrence. They received many beautiful gifts of cut glass, silverware, linen, furniture and money.

The bride is well-known in Andover, where she has lived all her life. She received her early education in the public schools and graduated from the Lawrence Commercial School. She is a member of Andover Post, No. 8, American Legion Auxiliary, and formerly held an office in that organization. She has been employed in the Tye Rubber Company office as a bookkeeper for the past nine years.

The groom is a native of Lawrence and is employed in the City Hall as a stationary fireman. He is very popular in Lawrence, and has been a prominent member of St. Anne's Club. He played in the outfield on the St. Anne's nine and was also affiliated with the bowling league.

WHITE—BOUTWELL

Miss Rachel Niles Boutwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trull Boutwell, was married on Tuesday afternoon to Montague White of Duxbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wellington White of West Hartford Conn. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles W. Henry at the home of the bride on Shawmut road, in the presence of a group of relatives and intimate friends.

Miss Thelma Jean Dunn, of Hackensack, N. J., a classmate of the bride, was maid of honor. John Dunbar Rusher, Jr., Yale, 1929, of Hartford, Conn., a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. W. Gordon Booth of Bradford, sister of the bride. The house was most attractive with autumn flowers and oak leaves. Page of Lowell catered.

The "Get-Together Luncheon," of the Woman's Alliance, held in the vestry last Thursday, was largely attended. "A Forward Look" was the theme discussed by officials and committee chairmen.

Obituaries

MARY CALDWELL

Miss Mary Caldwell died Sunday evening at her home, 127 Elm street. Deceased was born in Elgin, P. Q., Huntington county, N. H., in 1848. She had lived in Manchester, N. H., for forty years, where she was an active member of the Methodist church. The last few years she had made her home with her brother in Andover, where she attended the Baptist church.

She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Clara Ferguson of Dundee, P. Q., and the Misses Jane and Margaret Caldwell of Andover, and a brother, William, also of Andover.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the late home, with Rev. T. E. Cramer, pastor of the Methodist church in Manchester, N. H., officiating, assisted by Rev. C. Norman Bartlett, pastor of the Baptist church.

The bearers were Charles and Fred Caldwell, H. Earl Richardson, Warren and Herbert Washburn.

Interment was in the family lot in Spring Grove cemetery. A large and beautiful display of floral offerings was received from relatives and friends.

EDWARD H. CARROLL

Edward H. Carroll died early Wednesday morning at his home, 34 Exchange street, Lawrence. Deceased was born in Lowell and had resided in Lawrence and Andover for the past fifteen years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie Carroll; two sons, William of Andover and Joseph of Lawrence; and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Beaudre of Lowell.

The funeral was held Thursday morning at nine o'clock from the late home with a mass of requiem in St. Mary's church. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Lowell.

MARY J. SULLIVAN

Miss Mary J. Sullivan, lifelong resident of Andover, died Tuesday night at the family home, 42 Corbett street. She was born in Andover forty-nine years ago and was graduated from Pundarch Free School with the class of 1893.

She is survived by her father, Eugene Sullivan; one sister, Julia Sullivan; and three brothers: John, Patrick, and Owen Sullivan. The funeral was held from the late home Thursday morning with a mass of requiem in St. Augustine's church, and interment was in the family lot in St. Augustine's cemetery.

MUNROE KIMBALL NICHOLS

A sudden heart attack, superinduced by a strenuous game of tennis, Monday afternoon, proved fatal to Munroe Kimball Nichols, only son of Mrs. Frances Mitchell Nichols of 25 Central street, and a member of the Freshman class at Harvard College. Nichols, leading his opponent, R. S. Tennant, also a Freshman, by a score of 5-2, dropped dead on the courts at Soldiers Field, Cambridge, just as he was about to return a service shot.

As the youth fell to the ground his face came in contact with the handle of his racket, causing an abrasion to his eye and bringing blood from his nose. This led the police to believe that the lad had met a violent death, and accounts for the investigation ordered by the medical examiner's office.

Tennant and Coaches Frank Hurley and Harry Cowles ran to his side. They found him unconscious and applied first aid without effect. Four other students, H. Spontitz '29, W. S. Wirsky '29, H. Firgir '29, and J. Tonkin '28, picked the boy up, took him to the street, and stopped a passing car, in which they took him to the Cambridge hospital.

Dr. Canzaneli examined the boy and found life extinct. He notified Associate Medical Examiner Donald E. Currier, who, after an examination, declared his opinion that the boy had died from a heart attack and that death was accidental.

Dr. W. D. Walker, the family physician, said that young Nichols had suffered in the past from a leaky heart valve, but he thought judging by recent symptoms, that he was in fairly good health. He said that undoubtedly the extreme exertion of the game had caused a recurrence of the trouble.

An unusual feature of the case is that death was not instantaneous. After the boy fell he was able to brush his right hand across his face. This was shown by blood found on his hand.

He had not taken the physical examination required at the college and it is thought that, if he had done so, he would have been warned against taking up so strenuous a game as tennis.

Young Tennant was questioned by Inspectors Landrigan and O'Neil as to how the accident happened. His story set at rest rumors that trouble had preceded his death. He declared that, though a fellow resident at Gore Hall, he was not acquainted with Nichols, who was identified by a tag found on a key in his pocket.

Dr. Marshall Bailey, Harvard University medical advisor, stated Monday night that Nichols was permitted to play tennis only because he had not yet been examined in accordance with the regulations governing freshman compulsory physical training.

The entering class is examined in alphabetical order, and Nichols had not been reached on the list. Had he been examined, he would not have been permitted to play, because of his heart affliction.

Munroe Kimball Nichols was born in Haverhill and received his early education in the public schools of that city. He entered Phillips Academy and was graduated from the latter institution last June. In September he entered Harvard College.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Frances Nichols, and two sisters, Elizabeth and Cynthia Nichols. His father was the late George M. G. Nichols, a prominent Haverhill lawyer, who died about twelve years ago.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. Charles W. Henry of Christ church were held yesterday afternoon at the late home, 25 Central street.

The bearers were S. C. Henry, Harvard '28; C. E. Reed, 2nd, Harvard '28; T. F. Mason, Harvard '30; P. R. French, Andover; T. P. Bosquet, Haverhill; and Carleton Pearl, Phillips Academy '28.

Burial was in Linwood cemetery, Haverhill.

GEORGE GUTTERSON

Rev. George Gutterson, for more than thirty years field secretary of the American Missionary association, died Wednesday, October 13, at Clifton Springs, N. Y., where he had been spending the winter.

He was born in Andover, May 12, 1846, the son of George and Priscilla Gutterson. He was graduated from the Pundarch school with the Class of 1865, and attended Phillips Academy and the Andover Theological seminary. For ten years he worked in India, under the American Board, and on his return to this country became field secretary of the American Missionary association, a position which he held until within a few years of his death.

In 1878 he married Miss Emma Wilder, a teacher in Abbot academy, the ceremony taking place in the South church in this town.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Wilder Gutterson; by one brother, Myron E. Gutterson of Andover; ten children, Mrs. Horace Taylor of Cambridge, Mrs. Franklin Carter of Greenwich, Conn.; Miss Mildred Carter of Cambridge; Mrs. Karl Houbenstein of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Richard Williams of Hartsdale, N. Y.; Mrs. Thomas Green of Paris, France; Mrs. Judson Smith; Mrs. Philip Peirson of New York City; Herbert Gutterson of Rye, N. Y.; and Wilder Gutterson of Detroit, Michigan; and by sixteen grandchildren.

Arrangements for the funeral services have not yet been completed.

Surprise Shower for Miss Dennison

The W. W. G. girls of the Baptist church held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Alexander Crockett on South Main street Monday evening and initiated six new members. After the business meeting a surprise shower was tendered to one of the members, Miss Gladys Dennison, in honor of her approaching marriage, on October 28, to Charles Barnett, Jr., of Burnham road. Miss Dennison was presented with a large picture from the society and also received numerous gifts from the members. During the evening an interesting dialogue was given in which the following took part: Grandmother, Miss Edith Kierstead; Mrs. Everett Lundgren, Mrs. Carrie P. Bacon, Mrs. C. Norman Bartlett, and Mrs. Arthur E. Dennison.

Clean Record on Holiday

Sergeant Napier, who is acting chief during the vacation of Frank M. Smith, reports a perfectly clean sheet on the police records for the holiday. Five extra men were employed and in spite of the heavy traffic there was not an accident.

One bystander counted 125 automobiles passing a given point within five minutes, and another counted 128. At the hours of the heaviest traffic, when visitors were passing to and from the Rockingham races, it is thought that the number was even greater.

Colonial Patrons Pleased with Change in Hours

It is quite evident, judging by the increased attendance, that the change in policy inaugurated by the new manager at the Colonial theatre last week pleases the theatre-going public. The first evening performance now commences at seven o'clock. It allows ample time for the patrons to arrive at the theatre before the feature picture is put on. The sequence of the picture goes on without interruption. Two full performances are given in the evening. Those who find that the seven o'clock performance is too early may see a complete show by coming into the theatre at 8.45, which is the starting time of the second evening performance.

This coming Monday and Tuesday the management will present Eddie Cantor's first appearance on the screen in "Kid Boots." The critics have boosted this picture sky high. It is playing in Andover at the same time that it commences its Boston run. If you want a really good, enjoyable laugh see Eddie Cantor in "Kid Boots" next Monday or Tuesday at the Colonial theatre, Andover.

Betsey Ross Chapter D. A. R. Meets in Andover

The first meeting of the season of the Betsey Ross Chapter, D. A. R., of Lawrence met yesterday afternoon with Miss Elizabeth Swift at her home on Central street.

The regent, Mrs. Henry A. Webster, Jr. presided, and a resume was given of the various activities of the chapter since the last meeting in May. A generous contribution has been made to the bond issue for the auditorium to be built in Washington and in the evening a social hour was held.

Mrs. Arthur S. Tallis, secretary, and Mrs. Charles E. Zuber, treasurer, gave their reports. Miss Grace Wadsworth, chapter delegate to the state convention, held last week in Pittsfield, also made a report. By a unanimous vote, Mrs. George A. Mellen was elected honorary regent.

The address of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Stephen R. Hurd of East Milton, state vice regent, who took as her subject "Modern Patriots."

After the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Kate A. Swift, Mrs. Arthur E. Jones, and Mrs. Ralph O. Ingram.

Andover Club Elects Officers

The Andover club recently held election of officers. Charles A. Hill, was re-elected president, and Everett Lundgren, vice president. E. M. Pearson will succeed Dr. Malcolm B. McTernan as secretary of the club. Frank Hatch was re-elected treasurer.

Rally Day at the Baptist Church

There was a large attendance at the Rally Day exercises in the Baptist church last Sunday. A good proportion of the Cradle Roll attended with their mothers, all the departments being well represented.

A recitation about the Bible was given by a dozen juniors, and all of the large junior department sang "What a friend we have in Jesus." There were other recitations and songs, and a solo, "Saviour, like a Shepherd lead us," sweetly sung by Allen Ward.

The pastor expressed the earnest desire that the Sunday School should be like a beautiful flower garden, full of little and larger human plants growing up to be like Jesus. This will be done by continuous preparation of the heart-soil, and careful nurture of the plants by the faithful teacher-gardeners.

The superintendent rejoiced in the large number of scholars present. "The record shows 139 attending. We are responsible for their spiritual education, for helping them live the lives God intends for them. We need the cooperation of all the parents and teachers in this great work."

The enthusiastic, happy service was closed by singing "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Baptist C. E. Notes

At the Sunday meeting of the Baptist Christian Endeavor society, the subject "Cooperation" was one of general interest. The service was held at Missionary Rock, Rabbit's pond. Seldon Billington, president of the society, led the meeting and many of those present took active part. James R. Carter, Advisor of the Union, read the program for the Conference to be held in Lawrence, October 16th.

After the meeting, those attending accepted a very kind invitation of Miss Edith Keirstead, Missionary Superintendent of the Union, and a very earnest worker in Endeavor affairs, to enjoy a lunch, at her home on Morton street, of hot chocolate and cookies. A song service brought the meeting to a very fitting close.

All members are urged to be present this coming Sunday at the prayer meeting service. The topic, "The Constitution" will be discussed under the leadership of Howard Harrington from the South church.

Tuesday night at 7.45 in the vestry there will be the monthly business meeting. It is hoped that the committee chairmen will have written reports to offer.

The members of the Society are very proud of the picture entitled "Return from Calvary" awarded to the church because of the best attendance at the Conference for Young People held in the Calvary Baptist church, Lowell, on Columbus Day. Due to the fact that every person attending the conference from the Baptist church is a member of the society, the Christian Endeavorers feel that a good part of the credit is due them.

Russian Symphonic Choir

There was a time when, to hear a concert by a choir, was to spend an entire evening listening to church music, religious chants and hymns and the classic choral works of Haendel and Bach. While this music is majestic and general in its appeal, still it made the evening somewhat monotonous. Lately, folk-songs became a conspicuous part of such choral programs and thus introduced a note of variety and popular appeal into concerts by choirs. But the Russian Symphonic Choir, under Basil Kibalachich, which will make its local appearance at George Washington Hall on October 23 will introduce a new kind of choral music, never before heard on such programs. In addition to church music and folk-songs, this choir will offer arrangements of popular light classics, originally written for the piano and known to every music lover. These arrangements have been made possible by Mr. Kibalachich's original ideas applied to choral singing and thus for the first time a Prelude by Chopin or a Song without words by Schumann will find a place on a choral program.

The program:
I—SACRED MUSIC
Ancient Melody arr. by Kibalachich
Chant de Cherubins (for six voices) Glinka
Easter Hymn Tschernokoff
(Soprano solo by Mme. Ivanova)
Pater Noster Count Cheremetief
Credo Grechaninoff
(alto solo by Mlle. Angelova)
Psalm Archangelsky
Lord, Have Mercy Leontsky

II—CLASSICAL MUSIC
Andante Con Moto (from Symphony No. 5) Beethoven
(on the occasion of the centennial of the composer's death)
Night Rubinstein
Oh, Heart o' Mine (from opera "Russalka" Dargemitsky
(Soloists: Messrs. Mamontoff and Shedko) Borodine
Polovetsky Song from "Prince Igor" Rimsky-Korsakoff
Church Scene from "Christmas Eve" Rimsky-Korsakoff

Peasant Fete Ippolitov-Ivanov
Sadko (tenor solo by Belostotsky)
III—FOLK SONGS
The Temple Bells (Indian Love Lyric) Woodford-Finden
Koliadka (Song of the New Year) arr. by Slapinsky
Children's Play Song arr. by Nikolsky
Lullaby (for female voices only) Lladon
Down the Volga (for male voices only) arr. by Kibalachich
Soldier Marching Song (for male voices only) arr. by Kibalachich

Special Meeting of Rod and Gun Club

Friday evening a special meeting of the Rod and Gun club was held in the rooms on Andover street with a large attendance. Victor Lowry presided and various reports were given by the officers.

Plans were made to hold a number of whist parties. In the past, parties of this sort have been successful and this year an endeavor will be made by the committee to make them even more attractive.

Since the formation of the Rod and Gun club it has been one of the most flourishing organizations in the village and a membership of over forty has been present at some of the meetings. Members are not only from this town but from Andover, Lawrence and North Wilmington.

Fox hunts have been held and a successful clambake proved to be an added feature. Besides arranging these social activities,

Annual Hunting Season Is Near at Hand

Director William C. Adams of the State Division of Fisheries and Game calls the attention of the public to the laws which will govern the shooting of upland game, so-called, this season.

As usual, the season will open on October 20 and will continue through November 20. During the period, partridge, quail, male pheasants, woodcock, gray squirrels, rabbits and hares may be killed subject to the following restrictions:

Bag limits:
Partridge, 3 in one day and 15 in the season.
Quail, 4 in one day and 20 in the season.

Pheasants, 2 in one day and 6 in the season.
Woodcock, 4 in one day and 20 in the season.
Squirrels, 5 in one day and 15 in the season.

Rabbits, 5 in one day and no seasonal limit.
Hares, 2 in one day and no seasonal limit.

Only male pheasants may be killed and a written report must be sent to the Division of Fisheries and Game, State House, within twenty-four hours stating the day, town, number and sex killed. There is no open season on pheasants in Dukes and Nantucket counties.

Strict attention should be paid to game birds killed, especially pheasants, and if a band is found on the leg it should be removed and sent to the Director with a statement as to the exact location where the bird was killed. This is in connection with research work to determine how far the birds travel after being liberated.

The season is closed on partridge in Dukes County.

The taking of quail is prohibited in Essex, Hampden, Hampshire, Middlesex, Nantucket, Norfolk and Worcester counties.

The taking of hares in Essex county is prohibited. The open season on hares and rabbits in Nantucket county is from October 20 to February 28. In Dukes county it runs from November 15 to February 15. In all other counties the season extends from October 20 to February 15.

All persons who hunt, both men and women, must secure the regular sporting license from town or city clerks.

The director makes a special appeal to hunters to respect the rights of the landowner and to safe-guard his property. No real sportsman will abuse the privileges extended to him by the land-owners nor will he discharge firearms in thickly-settled localities or close to buildings.

It is also urgent that extreme care be used to prevent forest fires. Unless the sportsmen do their part to prevent forest fires the Department will again be confronted with the same situation as during the past two or three years when it has been necessary to suspend the hunting season because of the dry conditions of the woods and the prevalence of forest fires. It is hoped that this situation will not arise this year.

Seven Andover Boys Attending New Hampton School for Boys

The New Hampton School for Boys began its new year last week with an overflowing enrollment.

Seven Andover boys are enrolled there this year. P. Bartlett Whittemore, the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Whittemore, Chestnut street, Leonard Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Perkins of Walnut avenue, George Horne, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Horne of Bartlett street, Warren Moor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Moor of Lowell street, Foster Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Leach of Bartlett street, Milton Jackson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson of Maple avenue, Warren Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Harrington of Bartlett street.

There are about twenty boys from Rhode Island, several from Connecticut and from such far away places as Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis, Havana, Cuba, and Mexico City, Mexico.

The enrollment of 125 is more than the total enrollment during the past year. The new principal, Frederick Smith, A.B. (Bates) A.M. (Harvard) has secured an especially strong staff of teachers. Wesley Gaffield Spencer, B.P.E. (Springfield) Ed. M. (Harvard) is director of Physical Recreation and Instructor in Science. Other members of the staff are: William A. Strickland, B.S. (Harvard), David Joseph Hartwell, B.S. (Harvard) Harold Alexander Zantow, Ph.D. (Michigan College of Mines and Brown), Ernest Reynolds Werme, B.S. (Colby), James Lawson Conrad, B.B.A. (Boston University). With this capable staff the school has close supervision of both study and playtime.

During the first week, class meetings were held and officers elected. The school orchestra and glee club organizations were put under way and about forty candidates began football practice.

The season opening on October 4, at Wolfboro in a game with Brewster Academy. New Hampton is a member of the New Hampshire Preparatory League and promises to give the other teams of the league considerable to think about during October and November.

Duckpin League Opens

The Andover duckpin league opened at the Andover alleys last Friday night when the Doherties took four points from the Wardens and the Brouettes took four points from the Sutcliffees.

Doherty was the high roller with a triple of 284, just nosing out Warden who rolled 281. Lefebvre got the high single with 110, and Carroll followed with 107. The scores:

TOWN OF ANDOVER

Office of the BOARD OF SELECTMEN

You are hereby required on or before Dec. 1, 1926, to destroy the gypsy and brown tail moths on your property in this town.

This notification is in accordance with Chapter 132, General Laws, which requires cities and towns to destroy the eggs, caterpillars, pupae and nests of the gypsy and brown tail moths under heavy penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of the law.

If a property owner fails to destroy such eggs, caterpillars, pupae and nests, then the city or town is required to destroy the same and the cost of the work, in whole or in part, according to the value of the land, is assessed upon and becomes a lien on the land. (Section 18, Chapter 132, General Laws, on reverse.)

The Selectmen ask owners and tenants to co-operate with the town in its work on highways and other public grounds by doing effective work on their premises. Citizens who have cleaned their premises of the moths, but find their trees endangered by the neglect of owners of adjoining estates should make complaint to the Selectmen. The infestation of a residential neighborhood by the neglect of a few will not be tolerated.

The eggs of the gypsy moth should be destroyed at once with creosote. They should never be scraped off the object on which they are laid. Careful search should be made for gypsy moth egg clusters, not only on trees, but also on house walls, stone walls, fences and in rubbish heaps, etc. Trees in which cuttings are used and which it is not desirable to cut should have the cavities filled with creosote. This is important. The present and future cost of combating this insect can be greatly reduced by cutting and burning worthless brush, hollow trees, etc. A few trees well cared for are more valuable to the property owner and the community than a large number of neglected trees.

The nests of the brown tail moth should be cut from the trees, carefully collected and burned in a stove or furnace.

Full instructions as to the best methods of work against the moths may be obtained from the Local Superintendent, E. Burke Thornton, or from the State Forester, Room 519, State House, Boston, Mass.

Work done by contractors should be inspected and approved by the Local Superintendent before payment for the same is made.

ANDOVER NATIONAL BANK HAS SERVED THIS COMMUNITY FOR OVER ONE HUNDRED YEARS

Ideals of Founders Have Ever Been Perpetuated By Officials—Present Modern Building
On Original Bank Site—Nearly 5000 Depositors—Service Excellent

OLD BANK BUILDING ABOUT 1830

Recently the Andover National Bank celebrated its hundredth year of service to this community. Its growth to nearly five thousand active accounts was made possible first through the integrity of its founders whose one desire was to serve the manufacturers and business individuals of the Andovers, and through the ability and fair dealing of those up to the present day who have maintained their ideals.

A petition in 1825 for the establishment of a bank read as follows:

"The trading and manufacturing capital of the town has very much increased within a few years passed, by the erection of several establishments for the manufacturing of cotton and woolen cloths and for other purposes . . . your petitioners are confident that the amount of mercantile and manufacturing business done among them . . . and which is manifestly increasing and the amount of money transactions growing out of that business, are sufficiently large to render a banking institution of great convenience," etc.

Steady Growth

Thus was the Andover National Bank born, and about 1830, the first bank building was erected on its present site. Since then, there has been a steady growth of industry, and with the industry came new homes, merchants and traders, therefore increasing the deposits and solidly entrenching the bank as a necessary part of Andover's business and civic life.

From the very founders of the institution until the present day, there have been elected as officers, men of integrity, whose character and ability to serve the needs of industrial Andover have never been questioned. They have made possible the growth of this institution and are deserving of great praise for their efforts.

New Building

It was found necessary, because of the tremendous growth of the institution, to have more spacious and convenient quarters, and in 1915 there was thrown open to the public one of the most modern and efficient structures of its kind, the new Andover National Bank Building. Along with improvements in materials and equipment, the bank has constantly increased the field and quality of its service to its customers.

The spacious accommodations for the patrons of the bank, the officers and clerks are equipped with every modern convenience. The handsome interior, finished in soft grey with mahogany woodwork, compares favorably with banks of its size anywhere.

Checking Accounts

The Bank receives deposits subject to check and renders monthly statements of the condition of such account.

Savings Department

Deposits in this department go on interest the first of each month. Dividends are declared quarterly, January, April, July and October. The number of savings accounts are growing rapidly.

Safe Deposit Vaults

Safe deposit boxes and storage vaults afford a safe depository for all sorts of valuables. Nearly 700 persons now have access to safe deposit facilities.

Certificates of Deposit

Individuals and firms find it profitable to employ temporarily idle funds in certificates of deposit on which attractive rates are paid.

Collections

The Bank's facilities are unexcelled for the collection of notes, drafts, coupons (Continued on page 8)

Crystal Ballroom to Open

Final preparations are being made for the opening of the Crystal Ballroom, formerly the Shawsheen Cafeteria, which takes place tomorrow night. The interior is being entirely renovated and will be operated under the management of Preston S. and Clifton J. Evans and Benjamin Babb. The two first named are the owners of Bella Vista at Corbetts pond, and the latter has been connected for the past five years with the Balmoral Outdoor Dance Gardens. The managers are sparing no expense to give the dance lovers of this section the best, and "Ed" Schubert's ten-piece Bella Vista orchestra will play for the dancing, which will be held on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday nights. A feature of the ballroom will be the 30-inch crystal ball, in reality a kaleidoscopic reflector, the patent rights of which are held by Preston S. and Clifton J. Evans, the final patent papers for which came through September 15 of this year. It is operated by electric power and has three distinct revolutions. With four 1000-watt spot lights playing on it, it presents a wonderful spectacle. A refreshment room is also being installed, and will contain one of the barbecue lunches which became so popular the past year. In fact it is Bella Vista transferred to Shawsheen and that means the best in dance music and an air of refinement that is only found in the best class of dance halls.

New Voters Registered

PARENT-TEACHERS MEET

Village Association Opens Season with Successful Gathering. Food Sale Planned for October 29

The first meeting of the season of the Shawsheen Parent-Teacher association was held last evening in the school hall. Mrs. Clarence W. Coolidge, who was elected president at the annual meeting last spring, opened the meeting. She has moved from the village but came back to attend the first meeting. Following the reading of her resignation by the secretary, Mrs. Albert Fischer, she turned over the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Philip Blades. A notice of the state convention to be held in Boston on October 28, 29, and 30, was read. It was voted to raise the dues of the association from 35 to 50 cents a year. Grades II and III were tied for the attendance banner. The ways and means committee announced that there would be a food sale in the Boys' club on Friday afternoon, October 29, from two to five o'clock. Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and an informal reception was given the teachers. Miss Roxanna Smith sang several solos and she was accompanied at the piano by Miss Rachael Stickney.

Take Three Points

Jays Retain Lead

Too much Robertson is the only reason the Tubals were unable to topple the Jays out of first place in the Andover Square and Compass bowling league Wednesday night at Shawsheen alleys. Foster's first two strings were just normal but he broke loose in the final one and six spares and a strike gave him a high single of 145. He also had 328 for the best triple. The Tubals did manage to take one string, the second, by 13 pins.

The Cains took second place by winning three from the Biffs. Hardy's 98 and 274 were the best scores of the match. Thompson's 95 was the best effort of the winners, but he was topped by Preston who had 271 for high triple.

The Tyreans broke into the win column after being shut out a week ago. They took two from the Hiram by the narrowest of margins, winning the first by four and the last by one. A lead of 40 in the second string gave the Hiram enough leeway so that they won the total by 35 pins. Wadman and Erving both hit an even hundred but the latter had 276 for best triple.

The matches next week will be rolled on Tuesday night.

COURSE RECORD EQUALED

Brilliant Golf by Jock McAndrew Gives Him Place Alongside Hagen. Pro-Amateur Tournament Success

Jock McAndrew of Winthrop and Eddie Morgan of Norfolk, raced away from the field in the 36-hole amateur-professional best-all tournament Monday at the Andover Country club. The youngsters won the gross by four strokes with their total of 141 and their net 134 was the best in six strokes.

The youthful Winthrop professional was in one of his brilliant scoring moods in the morning. He galloped around the 18 holes in 68 strokes, thus equalling the course record that was established a fortnight ago by Walter Hagen in an exhibition match. No one else in the field succeeded in coming close to MacAndrew's individual round and his fine shooting gave his team a best ball of 67 for the morning. It was helped along by a four that Morgan had at the comparatively easy sixteenth hole to better his partner by one shot. The sixteenth hole measures 300 yards and slopes down from tee to green.

MacAndrew could have kicked his ball onto the green after his drive had stopped rolling and that made him all the more dismayed when he finally holed out in five. It was the first visit that many of the players had made at Andover and some of them were delightedly surprised at seeing so fine a course. Others among them were not so pleased because of the faulty manner in which they played and the tournament produced more no cards than any other amateur-professional tournament of the season.

Next to MacAndrew and Morgan came Rolly Thomas of Sandy Burr and Jimmy Conroy, the state junior champion, with a total of 145. They also tied for second net with Jim Hendry and Harold Nute of Manchester at 140 strokes.

Like his brother, Charley, Jock MacAndrew never seems to get the breaks. It seems that there was a special prize of $25 put up for the best round, but the announcement was delayed until most of the teams had hit off in the morning and so it was given for the best 18 holes in the afternoon. Three tied for the extra prize money with 745 and MacAndrew, having shot most of his sensational golf in the morning, was not one of them.

The trouble that most of the players ran into was trying to keep their shots on the fairways. Andover, while probably not so exacting as Charles River, is no place for a wild hitter, as Norman Young of Cohasset will testify. A ball into the rough occasionally becomes a lost ball and that exacting penalty is what sent Teddy Gow of Weston, and Warren Hopkins of Charles River, well down the list.

The very fine MacAndrew, Morgan card follows:

Teachers Federation to Hold Fall Conference at Riverbank Lodge

Presidents and secretaries of clubs belonging to the Massachusetts Teachers Federation will hold their autumn conference at Riverbank Lodge, Sherborn, on October 16, marking the occasion with an old fashioned clambake to be served at noon.

The program will begin at 2 p.m. and will consist of a discussion of the work of the various local committees of the Federation. Each chairman is expected to give a five-minute talk on the work of his committee. This will be followed by questions and answers.

The Lodge was a gift to the Federation about a year ago by Mrs. Bancroft Davis of Washington, D. C. Miss Cora E. Bigelow of Boston is hostess at the present time. The farm-house is over a hundred years old and the work of preparing the furnishings of the Lodge was done by the teachers themselves. The money to furnish it and make the necessary repairs, some $6000, was raised by voluntary contributions last year. The Everett teachers have furnished one of the rooms in colonial mahogany in memory of Melville A. Arnold who was a former member of their club and the first chairman of the Lodge Committee. Mr. John E. Lynch, principal of the Woodland School in Worcester, is the present chairman of the committee. The Lodge was visited this summer by teachers from all over the state, many staying for days and weeks.

The clambake will be the first of a series of special outings or other festivities it is proposed to hold at the Lodge. It will be kept open all winter, the teachers going there for week-ends or longer times as they may arrange. Many teachers coming to Boston from the western part of the state will undoubtedly make over-night stops at the Lodge.

The president of the Andover Club is Mervin Stevens; the secretary, Mrs. Georgianna Hilton.
